THE HILTON INN AT PENN EMPLOYEES RECOGNIZED FOR THEIR “MILLION DOLLAR” PERFORMANCE

Employees To Receive A Monetary Reward

(PHILADELPHIA, PA), April 15, 2003 – Hilton Hotels Corporation, one of the world’s leading hospitality companies, recognized The Hilton Inn at Penn, University City, Philadelphia, as one of nine properties to receive the company’s Hilton Million$ Team Pride Award. This is the second straight year the Inn at Penn has received this prestigious recognition and is the only Hilton to receive the award two consecutive years. The celebration for all the employees and senior Hilton officials will take place at Noon on April 15, 2003 at The Hilton Inn at Penn.

More than 325 U.S. Hilton hotels were reviewed for this and other honors as part of the Hilton Pride reward and recognition program. By collectively achieving or exceeding 100 percent in eight measured performance areas, every full time team member at The Hilton Inn at Penn will receive a monetary reward.

“The Hilton Inn at Penn has created an environment that is dedicated to guest satisfaction,” said David Newhart, general manager. “Receiving the Hilton Million$ Team Pride Award is truly an honor, as all of us work hard towards providing a quality experience for our guests and team members alike.”

“The goals were high and we knew our properties were up to the challenge,” said Dieter H. Huckestein, president, hotel division for Hilton Hotels Corporation. “The Hilton Million$ Team Pride Award raises the performance bar even higher for our hotels, and presenting The Hilton Inn at Penn with this award is an honor because it is one of the greatest recognitions a hotel can achieve.”

The Hilton Inn at Penn, a 238-room AAA Four Diamond hotel, is located on the campus of the University of Pennsylvania. The hotel was designed to appeal to academic, business and leisure travelers. For more information, logon to www.theinnatpenn.com
